Appeal from Delaware District Court, L. John Degnan, Judge.

Petitioner-husband appeals from a decree alleging the property division was inequitable. He also objects to the appointment of a receiver. AFFIRMED AND REMANDED.

Robert C. Nelson, Cedar Rapids, for petitioner-appellant.

E. Michael Carr, Manchester, for respondent-appellee.

Considered Oxberger, C.J., and Donielson and Snell, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Petitioner-husband appeals from the decree of dissolution entered in this cause on the ground that the property division was inequitable. He also objects to the appointment of a receiver. We affirm and remand.

This matter is here de novo. Upon examination of the record, we agree with the conclusions of the trial court and affirm the decree as entered.

However, we remand for the filing by the receiver of an inventory and final report and an appropriate order of the trial court closing the receivership.

AFFIRMED AND REMANDED.
