Respondent-Appellant.)

Appeal from Johnson District Court - Ansel J. Chapman, Judge.

Respondent appeals from economic provisions of the decree dissolving the parties' marriage. AFFIRMED.

Philip Mears of Mears, Zimmerman & Mears, Iowa City, for respondent-appellant.

Philip A. Leff of Leff, Leff, Leff, Haupert & Traw, Iowa City for petitioner-appellee.

Considered by Donielson, Acting C.J., and Johnson and Schlegel, JJ.

PER CURIAM

On appeal from the decree dissolving the parties' marriage respondent asserts that the property division was inequitable and that the child support award should have been made subject to an annual cost of living adjustment. She has also requested an award of attorney fees on appeal.

Iowa Code section 598.21(1) sets out the factors generally to be considered in determining the reasonableness of the property division in dissolution of marriage proceedings. Iowa Code section 598.21(2) provides a separate standard for allocation of inherited property. Upon de novo review of the record, we find that the trial court's division of the parties' property was correct and equitable under the circumstances. We further find that adding an annual cost of living adjustment to the child support award would be inappropriate in this case. See In re Marriage of Stamp, 300 N.W.2d 275 (Iowa 1980). Consequently, we affirm the trial court.

An award of attorney fees on appeal is not a matter of right. Under the circumstances of this case, we decline to make such an award.

AFFIRMED.
