DONALD JONES, BY HIS CONSERVATOR, GENEVIEVE JONES, AND GENEVIEVE JONES,

Plaintiffs-Appellants,

vs.

HARTFORD CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY and MARK FELTZ,

Defendants-Appellees.

Filed February 21, 1984

Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Polk County—Maynard J.V. Hayden, Judge.

Plaintiffs appeal from summary judgment for defendant insurer in an action arising out of an automobile accident in which decedent insured was killed. AFFIRMED.

Kermit L. Dunahoo, Des Moines, for plaintiffs-appellants.

Frank A. Comito and George S. Eichhorn of Comito & Capps, Des Moines, for defendant-appellee Hartford Casualty.

Heard by Oxberger, C.J., and Snell and Schlegel, JJ.

PER CURIAM

The only issue presented for review is whether the trial court erred in granting defendant insurance company's motion for summary judgment on the ground that Iowa law does not allow intra-policy "stacking" in a single uninsured motorist insurance policy covering multiple vehicles and with multiple premiums. The plaintiffs request this court to reverse or limit Holland v. Hawkeye Security Insurance Co. 230 N.W.2d 517 (Iowa 1975). However, we are not persuaded to do so and find that case to be controlling. As in Holland, this case involves multi-vehicle coverage under one policy, not three policies applying to the same vehicle. Furthermore, the terms of the policy clearly and unambiguously state the maximum limits of benefits. See Holland at 521.

AFFIRMED.
