Appeal from Cedar District Court - L. D. Carstensen, Judge.

Defendant appeals from judgment entered in plaintiff's favor in this action to recover on an oral agreement to provide agricultural goods and services.

AFFIRMED.

Stuart Werling of Stenander & Werling, Tipton, for defendant-appellant.

James R. Keele of Keele & Keele, West Liberty, for plaintiff-appellee.

Considered by Oxberger, C.J., and Donielson, Snell, and Schlegel, JJ.

PER CURIAM

In this action to recover for agricultural goods and services provided, judgment was entered for plaintiff. On appeal, defendant's sole argument is that plaintiff's evidence at trial was so confused and contradictory that it could not provide a basis for judgment in plaintiff's favor. We disagree. Plaintiff's evidence was sufficiently specific to support the findings and judgment of the trial court. See Iowa R. App. P. 14(f)(1). The judgment in plaintiff's favor is affirmed.
