Appeal from Linn District Court, John F. Siebenmann, Judge.

In his appeal defendant's sole complaint is whether the police had specific and articulable cause to make an investigatory stop of defendant's truck. AFFIRMED.

Henry E. Nathanson, Cedar Rapids, for defendant-appellant.

Thomas J. Miller, Attorney General, and Michael Jordan, Assistant Attorney General, for plaintiff-appellee.

Considered by Oxberger, C.J., and Donielson and Snell, JJ.

PER CURIAM

In his appeal defendant's sole complaint is whether the police had specific and articulable cause to make an investigatory stop of defendant's truck. We affirm.

In State v. Jackson, 315 N.W.2d 766, 767 (Iowa 1982), the court held "Notwithstanding the fact that a mistake concerning the license plates led to the defendant's stop there was nothing illegal about the fact that, once he was stopped and exonerated, he was asked to display his operator's license."

Although the officers' suspicion of intoxicated driving proved to be incorrect, they were justified in stopping defendant's truck. The officers followed the defendant for fourteen blocks after he left a bowling alley at 10:30 p.m. As they followed him, his truck was weaving from side to side at a speed of 20 mph in a 35 mph zone. These are sufficient circumstances to permit a stop of defendant's truck to investigate a possible violation of Iowa Code § 321.37 (1981).

AFFIRMED.
