Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from Polk District Court - Rod Ryan, Judge.

Petitioner-wife appeals from dismissal of her petition for modification of the child support provisions of the parties' dissolution decree. AFFIRMED.

R. L. Morgan, Des Moines, Iowa, for plaintiff-appellant.

Lawrence F. Scalise and Ann Fitzgibbons of Scalise, Scism, Gentry, Brick & Brick, Des Moines, Iowa, for defendant-appellee.

Submitted to Oxberger, C.J., and Donielson, Snell, Carter and Johnson, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Petitioner wife appeals from dismissal of her petition for modification of the child support provisions of the parties' dissolution decree. She claims a substantial and material change of circumstances, including inflation and an increasing difference in the parties' incomes, justifies an increase in child support payments. We affirm.

Although our review is normally de novo in support modification proceedings, Iowa R. App. P. 4, we may refuse to exercise such review when presented with an inadequate record. In re Marriage of Meier, 267 N.W.2d 46, 47 (Iowa 1978). This is the situation here. The appendix contains only the petition to modify, respondent's resistance and the trial court's order. The trial court proceedings were unreported; we therefore do not have a transcript of those proceedings. Since petitioner has presented us with nothing to review except a few extremely brief and conclusory statements in her brief, we see no reason to change the result. We therefore affirm.

AFFIRMED.
