

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF IOWA

No. 6-110 / 95-1185

000197

IN RE THE MARRIAGE OF TARA S.
WALKER AND RANDY L. WALKER

Upon the Petition of

TARA S. WALKER,

Petitioner-Appellee,

And Concerning

RANDY L. WALKER,

Respondent-Appellant.

Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Greene County, Joel E. Swanson, Judge.

Randy Walker appeals from the decree dissolving his marriage to Tara Walker.

AFFIRMED.

Beverly Wild, Guthrie Center, for appellant.

Gregory J. Siemann of Green and Siemann, Carroll, for appellee.

Considered by Sackett, P.J., and Habhab and Streit, JJ.

SACKETT, P.J.

In this appeal from a decree dissolving a seven-year marriage, the sole issue is whether the trial court made the correct decision in awarding primary care of the two daughters born to the marriage to petitioner-appellee Tara S. Walker. Respondent-appellant Randy L. Walker contends the trial court drew the wrong conclusions from the evidence and he should have been awarded primary care. We affirm.

Tara and Randy were married March 25, 1988. Two children were born to the marriage. Jordan in 1989 and Taylor in 1991. Both parents love their children and have had substantial involvement in their lives. The children would be well cared for in either home. The only question is which parent is the better custodian. See In re Marriage of Ullerich, 367 N.W.2d 297, 299 (Iowa App. 1985).

We review de novo. In re Marriage of Vrbanc, 359 N.W.2d 420, 423 (Iowa 1984); Iowa R. App. P. 4.

There are serious conflicts in the evidence. We have reviewed the evidence giving attention to the trial court's assessment of credibility. We find no basis to disagree with the fact findings of the trial court.

We affirm.

AFFIRMED.
