PER CURIAM 172

Petitioner-appellant Anthony Steven Lea appeals from his dissolution decree. He contends the alimony and child support awards and the property division made by the trial court are all inequitable. He contends the trial court abused its discretion in awarding the wife attorney fees. We affirm.

Anthony and respondent-appellee Doe Lea were married in 1978. They have three minor children. The trial court granted joint custody and awarded physical care of the children to Doe. Anthony was ordered to pay alimony and child support. The property of the marriage was divided.

We review the record de novo. Iowa R. App. P. 4. We consider all relevant factors set forth under Iowa Code sections 598.21(1)(h), 598.21(3)(c) and 598.21(4)(b). See In re Marriage of Dahl, 418 N.W.2d 358, 360 (Iowa App. 1987); In re Marriage of Byall, 353 N.W.2d 103, 106 (Iowa App. 1984); In re Marriage of Hayne, 334 N.W.2d 347, 350 (Iowa App. 1983). We find the child support and alimony award to be equitable. We determine the property division follows statutory and case dictates.

We find the trial court did not abuse its discretion in its award of attorney fees to Doe. See In re Marriage of Orgren, 375 N.W.2d 710, 714 (Iowa App. 1985).

We award Doe attorney fees of $1,000 on appeal.

AFFIRMED.
