PER CURIAM

This is an appeal by Mary Lou Daniels, the natural mother of Nathaniel Buchanan, and Steven and Raymond Daniels, from a court order terminating the parent-child relationship existing between herself and the children. We reverse.

Our review of termination proceedings under chapter 600A, The Code, is de novo. In Interest of Kelly, # 60826, filed February 22, 1978. We have reviewed the facts urged to establish § 600A.8(4) and (5) grounds for termination. It is our judgment that the record in this case does not support a termination at this time. The record does support an adjudication that the children are in need of assistance; such a disposition is provided for in § 600A.9(1)(b).

Accordingly, we reverse the order of termination and remand the case for the entry of an order under § 232.33. The order shall enumerate the specific conditions within the parent-child relationship which must be alleviated in order for Mary Lou to avoid termination of her parental rights. See In Interest of Crooks, # 59967, filed February 22, 1978.

Reversed and remanded with instructions.
