Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Lee County - John C. Miller, Judge

Petitioner applied for postconviction relief to challenge the action of a prison disciplinary committee. AFFIRMED.

Charles Harrington, Appellate Defender of Iowa, and Deborah A. Goins, Assistant Appellate Defender, for the petitioner-appellant.

Thomas J. Miller, Attorney General of Iowa, and John M. Parmeter, Assistant Attorney General, for the respondent-appellee.

Considered by Snell, P.J., Schlegel, and Hayden, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Jerry Miles, a prison inmate, was subjected to prison discipline for allegedly fighting with another inmate. Miles challenged the prison disciplinary action by filing the present application for postconviction relief. The district court denied postconviction relief and Miles has appealed. He contends there was not substantial evidence to support the prison disciplinary committee's factual findings.

We affirm the decision of the district court. In reviewing disciplinary actions, the only issue of consequence is whether some evidence exists to support the board's decision. Wilson v. Farrier, 372 N.W.2d 499, 501-02 (Iowa 1985). Since the substantial evidence standard is inapplicable, we decline to reach the merits of petitioner's claim.

AFFIRMED.
