John S. Pieters, of Pieters and Pieters, Waterloo, Ia., for defendant-appellant.

Thomas J. Miller, Attorney General of Iowa, and Michael K. Jordan, Assistant Attorney General, for plaintiff-appellee.

Heard by Oxberger, C.J., and Donielson, Snell, Carter, and Johnson, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Defendant appeals his conviction of first-degree robbery in violation of sections 711.1 and 711.2, The Code. He claims that the trial court erred in refusing to give his requested instruction regarding the reliability of eyewitness identification testimony. We affirm.

The trial court gave the standard instruction regarding the credibility of witnesses and the weighing of their testimony. In State v. Wright, 274 N.W.2d 307, 314 (Iowa 1979), the supreme court held that this instruction was sufficient to inform the jury of the principles sought to be submitted in defendant's requested instruction regarding the reliability of eyewitness identification testimony. The Wright decision governs the disposition of this appeal. Since the trial court did not err in refusing to give defendant's requested instruction, we affirm the conviction.

AFFIRMED.
