Upon the Petition of

RAYMOND LEROY CASPER,

Petitioner-Appellant,

And Concerning

NORENE ELIZABETH CASPER,

Respondent-Appellee.

Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Guthrie County, Darrell Goodhue, Judge.

Husband appeals from a dissolution decree. AFFIRMED AS MODIFIED.

David L. Jungmann, Greenfield, for appellant.

Norene Casper, respondent-appellee, pro se.

Heard by Hayden, P.J., and Sackett and Habhab, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Petitioner-appellant Raymond LeRoy Casper and respondent-appellee Norene Elizabeth Casper were married in 1983. They have two children born in 1984 and 1985. The trial court dissolved their marriage, awarded the parties joint custody of the children and awarded Norene primary care. Raymond was ordered to pay child support and court costs.

Raymond appealed challenging the custody award. After appeal, the supreme court remanded the matter to the trial court. The trial court modified the decree, ordered Raymond to have physical care, and provided Norene pay $100 per month in child support.

Raymond contends he should have physical care. The attorney for the children also argues Raymond should have physical care. The trial court on remand found Raymond should have physical care. We agree. Our de novo review of the record convinces us the father is the superior parent. We have made this determination after considering the dictates of applicable case law. See In re Marriage of Winter, 223 N.W.2d 167, 174 (Iowa 1974); In re Marriage of Grandinetti, 342 N.W.2d 876, 879 (Iowa App. 1983).

We affirm the decree as modified by the trial court. Raymond is awarded physical care, and Norene is ordered to pay $100 per month child support.

Raymond contends he should not have been ordered to pay all court costs at the trial court level We affirm on this issue.

We order Norene to pay all costs on appeal.

AFFIRMED AS MODIFIED.
