IN RE THE MARRIAGE OF DIANA M. SAVAGE AND RODNEY L. SAVAGE

Upon the Petition of
DIANA M. SAVAGE,

259

Appellee,

And Concerning
RODNEY L. SAVAGE,

Appellant.

Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Jasper County, Jerrold W. Jordon, Judge.

Rodney L. Savage appeals the economic and child custody provisions of the decree of dissolution of marriage. AFFIRMED.

Phillip F. Miller, Des Moines, for appellant.

John Matthias of Matthias, Tyler, Nuzum & Matthias, Newton, for appellee.

Considered by Oxberger, C.J., and Hayden and Sackett, JJ.

PER CURIAM

These parties were married on February 14, 1981.

Rodney Savage appeals from the district court's decree of dissolution of marriage. He claims he should have been awarded primary care of the parties' two minor children. He also claims the amount of child support, attorney fees, taxes, and other obligations he was ordered to pay were excessive.

The parties have a daughter, born January 22, 1982, and a son born September 17, 1985. At the time of trial Rodney was employed at Maytag Dairy in Newton, Iowa. His monthly net earnings was $1,350 per month. Diana's net monthly income was $594 derived from ADC and food stamps. The trial court ordered Rodney to pay $50 per week per child for child support.

Our review is de novo. Iowa R. App. P. 4.

We have reviewed the record before us. This has been a stormy marriage. There have been disparaging allegations made by each party against the other. There is testimony to support the allegations. No benefit can be derived by this court reciting the facts and evidence presented at trial. Therefore, we decline to do so. We are satisfied the trial court made an equitable, appropriate, and just decision under the circumstances of this case. We affirm the trial court in all respects.

Rodney is ordered to pay $500 toward Diana's appellate attorney fees. Costs of appeal are taxed to Rodney.

AFFIRMED.
