Appeal from Dubuque District Court, T. H. Nelson, Judge.

Petitioner-wife appeals from the decree dissolving the parties' marriage, asserting that the child support and attorney fees granted by the trial court is inadequate. We affirm, modify, and remand.

Russel A. Neuwoehner, Dubuque, for petitioner-appellant.

Daniel P. Ernst, Dubuque, for respondent-appellee.

Considered en banc.

PER CURIAM

Petitioner-wife appeals from the decree dissolving the parties' marriage, asserting that the child support and attorney fees granted by the trial court is inadequate. We affirm, modify, and remand.

Under the applicable criteria in Iowa Code § 598.21, our de novo review persuades us that the child support award should be increased to provide $50 per week per child until each child becomes eighteen or self-supporting.

The petitioner earns $7604.32 gross annually and the respondent $23,784.

We affirm the trial court's denial of attorney fees at trial and award petitioner from the respondent the sum of $600 attorney fees for services rendered on appeal.

Costs are taxed to respondent.

The matter is therefore remanded for entrance of the modification pursuant to this opinion. The decree of the trial court is affirmed in all other respects.

AFFIRMED, MODIFIED AND REMANDED.
