WAGNER AND THOMAS WAGNER

Upon the Petition of
PATRICIA WAGNER,

Appellee,

And Concerning
THOMAS WAGNER,

Appellant.

Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Linn County, Thomas M. Horan, Judge.

Thomas Wagner challenges the district court's determination of the amount of satisfied judgment and the amount of his delinquent support obligations.

AFFIRMED.

Thomas J. Wagner, Gretna, Virginia, pro se, appellant.

Thomas J. Miller, Attorney General, Diane Stahle, Special Assistant Attorney
General, Michael J. Parker, Assistant Attorney General, and Corenne Liabo, Assistant County Attorney, for appellee State of Iowa.

Considered by Sackett, P.J., and Huitink and Vogel, JJ.

PER CURIAM

This is an appeal by Thomas Wagner claiming the district court improperly determined the amount of satisfied alimony for which he is entitled a credit and the amount he is delinquent in support. We affirm on appeal by memorandum opinion pursuant to Iowa Supreme Court Rule 9.

Regardless of who files a satisfaction of judgment, it is the judgment debtor's burden to prove satisfaction, if challenged. In re Marriage of Farr, 542 N.W.2d 828, 833 (Iowa 1996). Thomas has the burden to show the amount of the satisfaction. Having carefully examined the record, we find Thomas has failed to meet the burden of showing the district court's determination of the amount to satisfy the judgment was not correct.

We affirm the decision of the district court.

AFFIRMED.
