PER CURIAM

Robert James Reynolds appeals his conviction for carrying a concealed weapon in violation of section 695.2, The Code. This appeal is a connected case arising out of the same transaction, reported in State v. Reynolds, ___ N.W.2d ___ (Iowa Feb. 16, 1977).

In this case, defendant raises the same speedy trial issue as rejected by the Supreme Court in State v. Reynolds, supra, therefore, we are obliged to also reject it.

Defendant also asserts that this conviction is barred by double jeopardy concepts due to his earlier receiving and concealing conviction in State v. Reynolds, supra. The Supreme Court's analysis of a similar error assigned in Reynolds is dispositive of the issue here. The assigned error is wholly without merit. See State v. Reynolds, supra; State v. Stewart, 223 N.W.2d 250, 251 (Iowa 1974); State v. Cook, 261 Iowa 1341, 1348, 158 N.W.2d 26, 30 (1968).

Defendant's conviction hereby is affirmed.
