Respondent-Appellee.	)

Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Cedar County (D-892), Max R. Werling, Judge.

Petitioner appeals from the trial court's ruling on respondent's petition to modify their decree of dissolution. AFFIRMED.

Gary L. Robinson of Klinger, Robinson & McCuskey, Cedar Rapids, for petitioner-appellant.

Bradley Norton of Norton & Norton, Lowden, for respondent-appellee.

Considered by Oxberger, C.J., and Donielson and Hayden, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Petitioner-appellant requests this court on appeal to order certain findings and comments of the trial court be stricken from the record.

The trial court's comments in his order alluded to petitioner's unfitness to parent and unfitness to have custody of the parties' two minor children. Petitioner's custody of the children was not changed, modified, or affected in any manner.

Petitioner has cited no authority in support of this issue and we therefore deem it waived. See Iowa R. App. P. 14(a)(3). Additionally, we determine petitioner was not prejudiced as her custody of the children was not altered by the trial court.

Petitioner's request for attorney fees on appeal is denied. Costs of appeal are taxed to petitioner-appellant.

AFFIRMED.
