PER CURIAM

Respondent, Kathi L. Olson, appeals from the trial court's order placing physical care of the parties' two children with their father. She contends the evidence shows physical care of the two children should be with her and challenges several findings made by the trial court. We affirm.

Our review is de novo. Iowa R. App. P. 4.

Our first and foremost consideration is the best interest of the children. Iowa R. App. P. 14(f)(15). We give weight to the findings of fact by the trial court, especially when considering the credibility of witnesses, but we are not bound by them. Iowa R. App. P. 14(f)(7).

The parties were married in 1980. They have two children. Both parties are loving and caring parents; both have their weaknesses, a recitation of which would serve no useful purpose. The children will receive adequate care in either home. We find no reason to disturb the ruling of the trial court.

AFFIRMED.
