Appeal from the Iowa District Court for Linn County (DM 13423), Harold J. Swailes, Judge.

Respondent husband appeals from the decree dissolving the parties' marriage. AFFIRMED WITH DIRECTIONS.

Patricia Fetzer, Carroll Lucht,and Michael Bandy, Student Legal Intern, Iowa City, for respondent-appellant.

T. Todd Becker of the Tom Riley Law Firm, Cedar Rapids, for petitioner-appellee.

James L. Chipokas, Cedar Rapids, for the minor child.

Considered by Hayden, P.J., and Sackett and Habhab, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Respondent husband appeals from the economic provisions of the decree of dissolution of marriage. He claims the trial court's division of property and debts was inequitable and the alimony award was excessive.

In our de novo review of the entire record, we determine the trial court made a just and equitable division of the parties' marital assets and debts. We also conclude the award of alimony, both as to amount and length of time, is fair and equitable. We find the district court properly considered and applied the factors set out in Iowa Code sections 598.21(1) and 598.21(2).

In considering petitioner's request for additional attorney fees on appeal, we believe this request should be allowed in the amount of $500. We order the clerk of the district court for Linn County enter judgment against the respondent in favor of petitioner for this amount.

AFFIRMED WITH DIRECTIONS.
