Appeal from Poweshiek District Court - Dick R. Schlegel, Judge.

Plaintiffs appeal from directed verdict for defendants in their medical malpractice action. AFFIRMED.

Harold B. Heslinga of Heslinga & Heslinga, Oskaloosa, Iowa, for plaintiffs-appellants.

Chester C. Woodburn, III, of Hansen, McClintock & Riley, Des Moines, Iowa, for defendants-appellees.

Submitted to Oxberger, C.J., and Donielson, Snell, Carter and Johnson, JJ.

PER CURIAM

Plaintiffs appeal from directed verdict for defendants in their medical malpractice action. They claim that the trial court erred in sustaining defendants' hearsay objections to the remainder of certain testimony elicited by defendants. We affirm.

Plaintiffs' only assignment of error in this appeal relates to the trial court's rejection of certain evidence on hearsay grounds--they do not allege error in the court's sustaining of defendants' motion for directed verdict. Nor do they argue that the excluded evidence, if it had been admitted, was such as would change the result on the motion for directed verdict. By failing to argue said matters, plaintiffs fail to demonstrate how they were prejudiced by the claimed errors in evidentiary rulings. Plaintiffs therefore present no basis for reversing the trial court's judgment.

AFFIRMED.
